

J. J. Abell

THE ONLY
One Price Clothier
IN GUTHRIE

We sell the famous
"Barker Brand"
Collars
All the new shapes are here
THEY ARE LINEN.

2 Collars for 25c

MEN'S AND BOYS' CAPS

All the new Spring Style Caps are here
Price 25 and 50 cents

MEN'S SPRING & SUMMER UNDERWEAR

We have the largest stock of Men's Union and Two-Piece Underwear in Guthrie. You'll have no trouble in getting correctly fitted. Our prices are lower than you can buy elsewhere. Union Underwear, price

$1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50

Shirts and Drawers, price

25c, 45c, 50c, 75c, $1, and $1.50

Men's Furnishings
Come here
if you want the newest and best

J. J. Abell
Guthrie's Leading Clothier

Personal Mention.

G. E. Page is here today from Carney.
T. G. Tucker is here today from Shaw City.
H. G. Philby of Oklahoma City is in Guthrie today.
G. F. Chambers of Clinton, Ark., is here today.
M. A. Cook of Miami was a visitor in the city today.
C. W. Hickell of Mountain View is in the city today.
S. A. Straker of Carney was here on business today.
E. L. Ashby of Kiefer is in the city on business.
W. T. Lowrie and U. F. Clements of Enid spent the day here.
Ed L. Peckham of the Denver, Colo. and Golf is in the city.
A. D. Martin, editor of the Sparks Review, L. P. Guthrie today.
Mrs. Charles Duhack of Watertown, I. T., is here visiting friends.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Bacon of Memphis, Tenn., are in the city today.
Attorney Bush of Stillwater arrived in the city this morning.
C. W. Gray of Kansas City is a business caller in Guthrie today.
Fred Decker left this morning via the Santa Fe for Kansas City.
G. W. Watkins, who recently moved to Jefferson, was in the city today.
Livestock Inspector Hahn returned to the city today from Woodward county.
Mrs. H. O. Stark and Miss Hazel Bowler of Okemah are in the capital city visiting.
George E. Hays of St. Joseph spent the day here playing with Guthrie business men.
J. C. Pinkerton of Perry, who has been in the city for several days, returned to his home today.
J. W. Oldham was called to Fort Scott, Mo., this morning by the sudden death of his brother, B. F. Oldham.
L. H. Selzer returned from Holdenville, Okla., where he went to attend to some business for Revolver J. A. Willoughby.

WOMAN FIGHTS THIEF

Who Entered Her Apartments This Morning Before Daylight.

About 5 o'clock this morning the lady's house at 302 East Oklahoma avenue was entered by a thief, and considerable excitement was stirred.
The thief first entered the room of William Mitchell and stole eight dollars. Then he went into George Dean's room, where he awakened Mrs. Dean by rummaging about the drawers.
Mrs. Dean arose and seeing a strange man in the room she screamed for Mr. Dean, who did not awaken readily. A fight ensued between the thief and Mrs. Dean in which the thief lost his hat and overcoat. Mrs. Dean, however, was knocked down in the scuffle.
A loud scuffle and other things were taken but the thief ran down the alley behind with several officers after him.
It is thought that the officers have a clue, although no arrest has as yet been made.
Just received, two car loads of buggies. W. D. Packer, corner Oklahoma avenue and Broad street.

WEATHER FOR 14 YEARS

Some Statistical Data Compiled From the Oklahoma Weather Bureau Records.

The following data, covering a period of fourteen years, have been compiled from the weather bureau records at Oklahoma City. They are listed to show the conditions that have prevailed during the past month in question, for the above period of years, but must not be construed as a forecast of the weather conditions for the coming month.

CITY BRIEFS.

A busy day makes a busy man. Burdock blood purifier is the natural, never failing remedy for a busy liver.

A marriage license was granted to Jacob Roberts and Susan Johnson of Dayton this morning by Probate Judge Sitang.

In the probate court today the Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma vs. Sanderford case was on trial. This is a suit brought on a bonus note.

Exema, scalp, dandruff, itching, redness of the skin of any sort, instantly relieved, permanently cured. Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

Let the little child that grow into his father; the big child that grow into his son; and the old child that grow into his grandfather. Watch the little child. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet with Mrs. J. R. Shaver, 309 North First street, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Ordinary household accidents have no errors when there's a bottle of Dr. Thayer's Life Oil in the medicine chest. Headache, backache, rheumatism, indigestion, relief.

Traveling Secretary Citizens today issued notices to the following: B. K. VanVleet of Guthrie, Ok., William G. Bates of Bloomfield, and James Davis of Ponca.

The board of county commissioners met this morning, called acting on same, turned down a bid for repaving the Chas. bridge, and adjourned to meet again next Monday.

Rev. W. C. Thompson of the First Presbyterian church of Kiefer, Mo., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church here and begins his duties next Sunday.

Oklahoma: William S. Wells, commercial agent at the St. Louis, El Paso and Western railway, at Guthrie, was in the city yesterday on business for his company. The St. Louis, El Paso and Western is now operating its line from Guthrie to St. Louis and is a very good business.

Mr. Wells said that it was the intention of the road to continue to work to build a new line from Guthrie that some delay had been occasioned on account of material, but that on an early delivery of this the work of construction would be commenced. Mr. Wells was formerly connected with the Santa Fe at Guthrie and rendered good service.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

BEARS THE SIGNATURE OF Dr. J. C. H. Hatcher

WERE MARRIED HERE.

Prominent People of Northern Oklahoma Wed in Guthrie.

James J. Quarles, a prominent and enterprising business man of Fairfax, and Miss Ella T. Gray of Gray Horse were married this morning at the Episcopal church by Bishop Locke. Both the bride and groom are popular in their respective communities. Mr. Quarles is known all over northwestern Oklahoma. The marriage ceremony was conducted very quietly, only a few immediate friends being present.

A strength tonic that brings rich, red blood. Makes you strong, healthy and active. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your druggist.

IN SPIKE OF PAST.

W. J. Strong, Notorious in Two Cities, Marries Divorced Wife.

Chicago, April 1.—William J. Strong, once a prominent lawyer of Chicago, a former member of the Hamilton, the Marquette and the Catholic Athletic club, married his divorced wife, Francis W. Strong, in Philadelphia some time ago.

Behind this reconciliation lies the life drama of Amber Sharp, the sixteen-year-old girl with whose education Strong was charged. Rather than face the charge preferred by her indignant father, the attorney, facing a term in jail, forswore his return to Chicago and has since lived in obscurity.

On the grounds of habitual drunkenness a divorce decree was granted Mrs. Strong in Judge Tuttle's court August 8, 1902. The reconciliation is said to have been effected by Mrs. Strong in the declaration that she "loved him all the time."

Strong is known to have written to his divorced wife many times after his flight. The history of Strong's life in Kansas City and in Chicago, as told by his acquaintances, reads like a chapter from Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

He is said to have been a racketeer "boss" in Kansas City. It is also related that he crossed the Mississippi river in a row boat one dark night, after having conducted dog fights and cock fights with his fellow offenders.

At that time he was assistant city attorney of Kansas City.

His record in Chicago was a notorious one. It is said that by paying his wife's jewels he raised money enough to pay his club dues, and that he lived constantly upon his father-in-law. He was

LITTLE BOY BLUE.

His Mother Blows His Horn.

A lady living in Illinois writes about food to a friend, whose little girl has a definite stomach, and we are privileged to quote from her letter.

"The best way to advise you in little Rosie's case is, I feel, to tell you what I did for my little boy blue. He was like your daughter, very fond of white bread, potatoes, and the usual food of the everyday table. His appetite seemed good and he ate freely, but like Rosie, he didn't seem to get the proper amount of nourishment out of his food—was puny in body and lacking in strength, was nervous and half sick most of the time."

"I was very much worried about him, because I couldn't find the right sort of food for him—the ordinary breakfast foods didn't seem to answer. At last, a few months ago, I determined to try Grape Nuts. I confess I was almost in despair, and had but little hope that it would prove any better than the other prepared foods."

"The result was most surprising. Boy took to the Grape Nuts food and it did him good from the beginning. He gained steadily in weight, strength and good spirits, and has taken on a complexion like a wild rose. His eyes fairly dance with health and happiness—his persistence is all gone."

"Then husband and I both began to eat Grape Nuts food, and with the best of results. He finds it especially beneficial as a brain food. You know that one with the sedentary habits needs something specially adapted to such conditions—much nourishment in small bulk. He finds it to be Grape Nuts food and we are both better with it than we began to."

"Give your baby Grape Nuts and I'll guarantee the result." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Well-being," in each package.

Denver, Colo., April 1.—Adjutant General Sherman Bell of Peabody's military staff will retire April 5, at the expiration of his two-year term, but Governor James McDonald will replace him with Captain Burley Wells, who has been Bell's understudy, and who has been up to date as a model. Sherman Bell has received an invitation from President Roosevelt to accompany him on his hunt, and Bell will be with the president from the time of the Texas reunion until they arrive at Glenwood.

For some time it has been rumored that Bell is to be given a federal appointment, and it is believed the job is waiting if Bell chooses to accept. His great popularity with mine owners would also favor him as a good pension as a mine superintendent, which would pay more than any government job that is likely to get.

For this reason Bell may prefer to remain with the Mine Owners' association. Governor McDonald has shown every indication of a determination to carry out Peabody's policy of driving the Western Federation from Colorado, and more developments may take place if the session continues.

THE O. S. SEXTETTE

Will Give Elaborate Program Tomorrow Evening at High School.

A most elaborate program has been arranged for the O. S. Sextette of the Logan county high school to be presented at the high school building tomorrow evening.

A number of Guthrie's most prominent musicians are invited and the sextette promise to be successful throughout.

Music—L. C. H. R. Orchestra. Solo—"How Wana"—Marilyn Fennell. O. S. Sextet.

Reading—"Aye, I'll be"—Lina Lowden. Vocal Solo—"Past and Future"—Robert Martin.

Larry Solo—"The Girl"—Mrs. Charles Cunningham. Vocal Solo—"The Girl"—Robert Martin.

Music—"When the Winds Blow the Snow"—L. C. H. R. Quartet. Whistling Solo—"Selected"—Otto Zimmerman.

"Tell Me, Pretty Maiden"—Helen. Vocal Solo—"The Girl"—Robert Martin. Vocal Duo—"Life's Dream is Over"—Anna Owens and Nina Griffith.

Vocal—"Norma"—Opera de Bellini. Solo—"Kentucky Jubilee"—Maud Goodrich. "Kentucky Jubilee"—C. E. Pickett.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

BEARS THE SIGNATURE OF Dr. J. C. H. Hatcher

WERE MARRIED HERE.

Prominent People of Northern Oklahoma Wed in Guthrie.

James J. Quarles, a prominent and enterprising business man of Fairfax, and Miss Ella T. Gray of Gray Horse were married this morning at the Episcopal church by Bishop Locke. Both the bride and groom are popular in their respective communities. Mr. Quarles is known all over northwestern Oklahoma. The marriage ceremony was conducted very quietly, only a few immediate friends being present.

A strength tonic that brings rich, red blood. Makes you strong, healthy and active. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your druggist.

IN SPIKE OF PAST.

W. J. Strong, Notorious in Two Cities, Marries Divorced Wife.

Chicago, April 1.—William J. Strong, once a prominent lawyer of Chicago, a former member of the Hamilton, the Marquette and the Catholic Athletic club, married his divorced wife, Francis W. Strong, in Philadelphia some time ago.

Behind this reconciliation lies the life drama of Amber Sharp, the sixteen-year-old girl with whose education Strong was charged. Rather than face the charge preferred by her indignant father, the attorney, facing a term in jail, forswore his return to Chicago and has since lived in obscurity.

On the grounds of habitual drunkenness a divorce decree was granted Mrs. Strong in Judge Tuttle's court August 8, 1902. The reconciliation is said to have been effected by Mrs. Strong in the declaration that she "loved him all the time."

Strong is known to have written to his divorced wife many times after his flight. The history of Strong's life in Kansas City and in Chicago, as told by his acquaintances, reads like a chapter from Stevenson's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

He is said to have been a racketeer "boss" in Kansas City. It is also related that he crossed the Mississippi river in a row boat one dark night, after having conducted dog fights and cock fights with his fellow offenders.

At that time he was assistant city attorney of Kansas City.

His record in Chicago was a notorious one. It is said that by paying his wife's jewels he raised money enough to pay his club dues, and that he lived constantly upon his father-in-law. He was

LITTLE BOY BLUE.

His Mother Blows His Horn.

A lady living in Illinois writes about food to a friend, whose little girl has a definite stomach, and we are privileged to quote from her letter.

"The best way to advise you in little Rosie's case is, I feel, to tell you what I did for my little boy blue. He was like your daughter, very fond of white bread, potatoes, and the usual food of the everyday table. His appetite seemed good and he ate freely, but like Rosie, he didn't seem to get the proper amount of nourishment out of his food—was puny in body and lacking in strength, was nervous and half sick most of the time."

"I was very much worried about him, because I couldn't find the right sort of food for him—the ordinary breakfast foods didn't seem to answer. At last, a few months ago, I determined to try Grape Nuts. I confess I was almost in despair, and had but little hope that it would prove any better than the other prepared foods."

"The result was most surprising. Boy took to the Grape Nuts food and it did him good from the beginning. He gained steadily in weight, strength and good spirits, and has taken on a complexion like a wild rose. His eyes fairly dance with health and happiness—his persistence is all gone."

"Then husband and I both began to eat Grape Nuts food, and with the best of results. He finds it especially beneficial as a brain food. You know that one with the sedentary habits needs something specially adapted to such conditions—much nourishment in small bulk. He finds it to be Grape Nuts food and we are both better with it than we began to."

"Give your baby Grape Nuts and I'll guarantee the result." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Well-being," in each package.

FARQUHARSON'S

High Grade Clothier and Furnisher

DUNLAP STIFF HATS

We have been made the Exclusive Agents for Guthrie of this Celebrated Hat, and we are in receipt of the new Spring Shapes. Call in and Let Us Show You.

A. O. Farquharson,

High Grade Clothier and Furnisher.

ONE PLAINLY MARKED PRICE TO ALL AND THAT PRICE RIGHT

U. C. GISS, Pres. FRANK DALE, V. Pres. J. W. PERRY, V. Pres. ROBT. SCHLEBER, Cashier, H. W. PAINTER, N. MELVILLE CARTER, ASST. Cashiers

GUTHRIE NATIONAL BANK

OLDEST IN OKLAHOMA. Capital $150,000.00. GUTHRIE, OKLAHOMA.

DIRECTORS: U. C. GISS, FRANK DALE, J. W. PERRY, B. F. EDWARDS, A. G. C. BURRER, A. J. SEAY, HENRY E. APP, K. W. PAINTER, ROBT. SCHLEBER.

erred politics in a small way and soon became a follower of William Jennings Bryan.

Shortly after the railroad strike of 1894 Strong's presentation of the blacklisting cases brought by the railroad men against the corporations kept him for some months before the public eye. He lost the case.

Then he became entangled with the girl, Amber Sharp. Her father and Strong were business partners. She was boarding at Constantine, Ind., and used to come frequently to Chicago, where she would meet the elder man who claimed to be in love with her.

Exposure followed and Strong fled. After the divorce decree, Mrs. Strong went to her childhood home in Leola, a town while later induced her husband to return from Honduras and re-marry her. Amber went to Fremont, Neb., where as a nurse resided. She is married now to the son of a wealthy wholesale merchant of that city. The last reports from her have it that she and her husband are happy and are enthusiastic church members.

A GOOD WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. E. J. Blackman Died

Died Last Night From Heart Disease.

New York, April 1.—Mrs. Anne Wright Walker of Philadelphia has just completed arrangements for buying fifty acres of land in the heart of an undeveloped New York apartment. The twentieth century development of the first that Mrs. Walker has taken in New York is on the fourth floor of the Fifth Avenue Hotel building. This is the highest priced apartment building in New York. The fortune of Mrs. Walker is said to be sixty million dollars.

A wonderful spring tonic. Drives out all winter impurities, gives you strength, health and happiness. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Ask your druggist.

WANTED HER MONEY. Whereupon Carrie Nation and Her Protégues Went to Jail.

Wichita, April 1.—Carrie Nation, Mrs. McHenry, Lydia Munn and Mrs. Lucy Wilson, temperance crusaders, went to jail today, voluntarily, to release a man thousands of dollars from prison. They are charged with wrecking the glass front of a wholesale liquor house some time ago.

PICTURES SOLD FOR $120,000.

The Brandeis Austin in New York Was Successful.

New York, April 1.—The Brandeis Austin of pictures was concluded at the Waldorf-Astoria last night. The sale was $120,000. This sum, added to the $100,000 of the previous evening, $220,000, makes $120,000. Eugene F. Paul sold $20,000 for J. P. Morgan's "Hunters."

A. J. May, a farmer living at the mouth of the Cottonwood river, killed a peculiar species of the bird family yesterday, which he brought to Guthrie this morning and placed on exhibition at the Leader office. The bird was not a pelican, as it was a swan, but bore resemblance to each of these birds. It

A PECULIAR BIRD

Killed at the Mouth of the Cottonwood Yesterday.

A. J. May, a farmer living at the mouth of the Cottonwood river, killed a peculiar species of the bird family yesterday, which he brought to Guthrie this morning and placed on exhibition at the Leader office. The bird was not a pelican, as it was a swan, but bore resemblance to each of these birds. It

MORTON & PERMENTER...

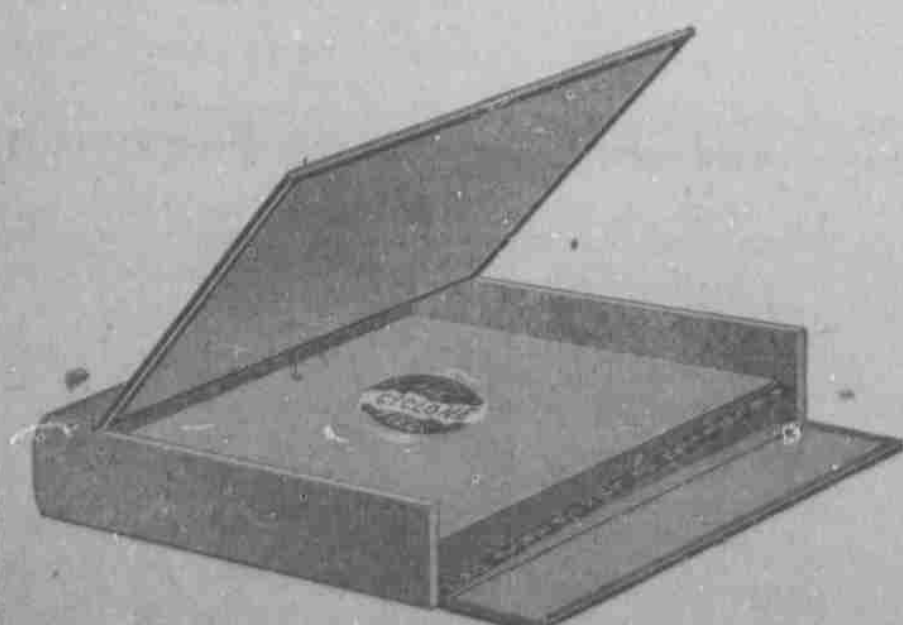

117 Oklahoma Avenue

Stylish and up-to-date

MILLINERY

Call and see our Hats before buying elsewhere.

PRESERVE YOUR CORRESPONDENCE....

LETTER FILES

For Ready Reference

Best Letter File made can be found at THE LEADER OFFICE.